

How could this happen to me?

A lonely sunrise, the world becomes silent

There's nothing I fear

Thoughts full of shadows

The darkest nightmare now is real

My soul is so far away

It used to be so near

I can't imagine a world with you and me

Without tears

CHORUS:

How could this happen to me

no one taught me to see alluring angel of the dark

My mind got high on this dream

I'm no more just a teen it suddenly killed my heart

An empty ocean

My heart is only a desert space

I nearly killed him

My good old friend in this place

Darkness of blind eyes

Out of an empty face

Suffering body

He's begging for love

I'm looking for grace
